No. 2023-1919

The Embassy of the United States of America refers to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China to the lawsuit State of Mississippi, ex rel. Lynn Fitch v. The People's Republic of China, et al., 1:20-cv-00168-LG-RHW, which is pending in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi Southern Division. The Chinese Academy of Sciences is a defendant in this case. The Embassy transmits a Summons and Complaint herewith. The U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi Southern Division has requested service of these documents on The Chinese Academy of Sciences as contemplated in Title 28, United States Code, Section 1608(a)(4). This note constitutes transmittal of these documents as requested by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi Southern Division.

Under applicable U.S. law a defendant in a lawsuit must file an answer to the Complaint or some other responsive pleading within 60 days of the date of transmittal of the Complaint, in this case the date of this note. Failing to do so, a defendant risks the possibility of having judgment entered against it without the opportunity to present arguments or evidence on its behalf. Therefore, the Embassy requests that the enclosed Summons and Complaint be forwarded to the appropriate authority of the People's Republic of China with a view towards taking whatever steps are necessary to avoid a default judgment.

In addition to the Summons and Complaint the Embassy is enclosing a Notice of Suit prepared by the plaintiff, which summarizes the nature of the case and includes references to U.S. laws concerning suits against foreign States, and certain other court documents that the plaintiff has requested be transmitted.

Under U.S. law any jurisdictional or other defense including claims of sovereign immunity must be addressed to the court before which the matter is pending, for which reason it is advisable to consult an attorney in the United States. It is the practice of the U.S. Department of State to be available to discuss the requirements of U.S. law with counsel. The U.S. Government is not a party to this case and cannot represent other parties in this matter.
